MEMORANDUM

TO: Agriscience Education Teachers

FROM: Matthew Ball
AAAE President

SUBJECT: 2022 Mid-Winter Conference February 17, 2022

The Alabama Association of Agriscience Educators (AAAE) will be hosting a Mid-Winter Conference on February 17, 2022 for all agriscience education teachers in Alabama. The Mid-Winter Conference will be held at Auburn Universities Student Activity Center from 9:00a.m. – 3:00p.m. This conference will be for all Alabama Agricultural Educators from North, Central and South districts. We will require an online pre-registration for this conference to assist with meal counts. Please use the link below to register for the 2022 AAAE Mid-Winter Conference.

Registration Link: <https://forms.gle/dRztUKnV6xSrNquK7>

The focus of this conference will be on spring and summer FFA activities, FFA membership, FFA initiatives, FFA Alumni and agriscience education initiatives including program credentialing, program reviews and Improvement Specialist. AAAE years-of-service plaques will be given to those that were recognized at 2021 Virtual ALCTE Conference. 2022 AAAE, NAAE and ALCTE award opportunities will also be discussed during this conference.

We hope that each of you have the opportunity to attend this conference and look forward to seeing you in Auburn. If you need additional information, please contact Matthew Ball President of the Alabama Association of Agricultural Educators.
